

Women's Ministry Opportunities

I'm excited about what God is doing in our Women's Ministry! I believe each woman has unique gifts, talents, and experiences that God wants to use to bless others. My heart is to help create opportunities where every woman feels included, encouraged, and equipped to share those gifts—whether it's through teaching, serving, creating, leading, or simply being present for someone in need. Together, we can build a ministry where no one feels left out and everyone has a place to shine for God's glory.
